Upon graduating from Drexel University in 1964, Dick spent the next 16 years at The Bank of New Jersey, rising to the position of Executive Vice President. While at The Bank he administered over a thousand trusts and estates. He also served as an officer and/or board member of over twenty companies that were owned in estates administered by The Bank.

In 1981, he left banking, obtained his CFP professional certification and became a Registered Investment Advisor. He started Weidner Associates, LLC a fee-based only financial planning and investment advisory business which he still runs with his son, Daniel.

Dick has served for over 40 years as an elder in his local church and chaired the elder board for most of that time. His spiritual gifts are leadership, giving and administration.

Dick was saved in a missions-minded church and has been active in various missions roles most of his Christian life, including starting a mission agency to minister in India, serving on the church missions committee and taking 6 missions trips to India. Two of his children, Daniel and Rebecca, have served in foreign missions and his eldest granddaughter is currently a missionary in Canada.

His family consists of his beloved wife, Joan, to whom he has been married for 62 years, four grown children, 15 grandchildren and 3 great-grandsons.
